CB: Story

2014

As of today
Chocolate Brown
operates a busy Cafeteria, Retail Chocolaterie and Factory, employs 25 staff and produces it's handmade award winning chocolates for its many retail, wholesale & corporate clients throughout
New Zealand

2013

The busy factory production space undergoes another extension (doubling it in size) to handle future growth and increasing demand

2010

Warkworth becomes Chocolate Brown's
new home, where it's now found in a renovated old local building
w/ tons of history

2007

The little Chocolate Factory changes hands and is rebranded
Chocolate Brown
It's production moves to a newly renovated factory space, w/ 3 staff, in the tourism hub of NZ, Queenstown.
The Geraldine location under goes a full renovation to become a stylish chocolate & sweet retail shop

2000

The little Chocolate Factory is moved to the mountain township of Geraldine, just south of Christchurch .

1993

The original little Chocolate Factory is set up in Rotorua, by a passionate Swiss family.
